

GE Aircraft Engines

General Electric Company
P.O. Box 156301, One Neumann Way
Cincinnati, OH 45215-6301
513 243 -3878

-----SENT ELECTRONICALLY-----

March 6, 2000

ALM/008/2000

U.S. Department of Transportation Dockets,
Docket No. FAA-99-6717,
400 Seventh Street, SW.,
Room Plaza 401,
Washington, DC 20590

Reference: Disposition of comments; policy statement for 207-minutes ETOPS; request for comments, issued in the Federal Register January 21, 2000

Subject: 207-Minute Extended Range Operations With Two-Engine
Aircraft (ETOPS) Operation Approval Criteria

Gentlemen,

GE Aircraft Engines has reviewed FAA Docket No. FAA-99-6717 which provides the referenced disposition of comments received on the policy letter titled "207-Minute Extended Range Operations With Two-Engine Aircraft (ETOPS) Operation Approval Criteria". As stated previously, GEAE fully support the FAA Policy Letter on this subject and the disposition of comments as published in the docket No. FAA-99-6717.

We would like to thank the FAA for the opportunity to comment on the referenced material.

Sincerely,

A. L. May
Industry & Regulatory Affairs
Airworthiness and Certification

andy.may@ae.ge.com
Phone: (513) 243-3878
Fax: (513) 243-5957